

'La Hacienda'

Model 56823, 2,026 Sq. Ft.

Whether on a view property or in a village setting our "Hacienda" is just the right size for that country estate you've been dreaming about. This open air plan has no traffic flow barriers between the comforts of a casual lifestyle in your choice of two country kitchen/nook designs and the refined elegance of the formal dining room. The great room provides panoramic views and can be offset with an optional gas or electric "walk-around" fireplace specially designed for this plan. Enjoy the evening sunsets from the spacious front entry porch and backyard barbecues easily accessed from the nook door. The master suite fits Texas sized furnishings and bedroom three easily converts to a hobby room with several entry choices. The utility offers many cabinet options and your choice of side or rear garage entry by simply switching door and window locations.

The artist's print shows the standard porch with optional deluxe accents, "Nicholas Oval" entry door, lap siding, grid windows, clerestory dining room windows, 3 window tower dormer, boxed window trim and architectural shingle roof.
